

Fathering Boys into Young Manhood

Bring Your Balls to the Game

Presented by: Ted Braude - The Boy Whisperer

As a father of a teenage boy,
have you ever felt like this?:

"What do I do with him?"

"He won't listen to a thing I say."

"I am so frustrated!"

Bring Your Balls to The Game Programs

Boys are born to become men and fathering them along the path has never been a cakewalk. Conflicts, pitfalls, frustrations and inexplicable feelings can overwhelm the moments of joy, pride and elation. The closer the boy moves to manhood, the rockier the terrain. With the collapse of an accepted cultural model of manhood and the "ascent of women," the challenge of fathering boys has reached an apex. "Bring Your Balls to the Game" provides a foundation of knowledge, a tested set of skills and a roadmap for fathering the boys into manhood.

Bring Your Balls to the Game small group program is a personal and intensive one session workshop, limited to just ten dads. You'll get personal attention and information tailored to you and your boy(s) in a small group setting. Come join Ted Braude and a select group of other dads and learn how to bring your balls to the game.

This is an interactive and participatory workshop with personal attention given to each participant and their personal situations and needs.

"I am truly thankful for our experience and just wanted to let you know that you had a huge influence not only on the kids, but also on myself. Our family would not be where it is without your input and words can never express the gratitude I have for our time together. Thank You! You are one of the wonderful people who are making a difference in this world."

—Jack, father of 3 teenage boys
